Growing Your Family Tree - Brian W. Hurlburt 2019-03-10

After 28 Years of Researching, Family History and Genealogy, and much prompting from a number of people, I'm writing this Genealogical Book, "Growing Your Family Tree - Sorting the Wheat from the Chaff". It will be of particular interest to those with Ancestry in Nova Scotia, and Atlantic Canada, but the scope of the book does go beyond those areas, and I hope You enjoy it and it helps You with Your Family History and Growing Your Family Tree. ~ Brian W. Hurlburt"Brian has sorted the wheat from the chaff in this most informative book on 'Growing Your Family Tree'. Beginning and Seasoned genealogists alike, will find it an essential, informative read!" By Dianne Perrin B.Ed.

The Civil War - Jason Shattuck 2015-12-15

The bombardment of Fort Sumter in 1861 set off the savage four-year war between the North and the South. The North fought to preserve the Union, whereas the South fought to win recognition as an independent nation. The war was a climax to quarrels between the two sides over the interpretation of the U.S. Constitution. Readers analyze the background of the war, military leadership and strategic plans of the war in the West and East, specific battles on land and sea, and the costs of the war.

Schools Cannot Do it Alone - Jamie Robert Vollmer 2010

Schools Cannot Do It Alone tells of Jamie Vollmer, businessman and attorney, as he travels through the land of public education. His encounters with blueberries, bell curves, and smelly eighth graders lead him to two critical discoveries. First, we have a systems problem, not a people problem. We must change the system to get the graduates we need. Second, we cannot touch the system without touching the culture of the surrounding town; everything that goes on inside a school is tied to local attitudes, values, traditions, and beliefs. Drawing on his work in hundreds of districts, Jamie offers teachers, administrators, board members, and their allies a practical program to secure the understanding, trust, permission, and support they need to change the system and increase student success.

Idaho Gems - Melody Bober 2015-02-11

The three pieces in Idaho Gems capture the spirit of this northwestern state. "White Pine Waltz" begins with a delicate melody in 3/4 meter inspired by the majestic western white pine, Idaho's state tree. The piece builds to a climactic middle section featuring flowing arpeggios in both hands before subsiding into a restatement of the theme. The second piece, "Craters of the Moon," paints a picture of the volcanic landscapes found in the national preserve of the same name. A repetitive chromatic figure in the lower register is combined with dissonant intervals in the upper register to capture the eerie otherworldliness of the park's lava fields. In "Snake River Rag," chromatic passages wind their way across the keyboard, inspired by the Snake River's twisted path through the Idaho countryside. "Western Gem" provides a dynamic conclusion to the suite. The piece makes full use of the keyboard with block chords and scalar passages in both hands, while a modulation in the middle section provides an additional musical challenge.
